Dear Fathers & Brothers,

Greetings to you all.

The descending of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost had enlightened the disciples of Jesus, to radically rooted in the purpose of their living. The mission of proclaiming the Gospel and to continue the ministry of Jesus on earth was, gracefully instilled through the gifts and the power of the Holy Spirit, which induced them to have a paradigm shift of their vocation as the apostle of Christ. And continued to persuade as the effective witness of God, fulfilling their entrusted mission throughout the world.

As we are preparing for the Pentecost I ask all of you to pray: for the outpouring of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit upon our Indian Region, on our Congregation, on our provinces and communities, upon each one of us who is watching and waiting for understanding and peace. The Gift of the Holy Spirit changed the early Church. Pentecost and the outpouring of the Spirit was the decisive moment for the apostles. It defined the Church. It was at that moment – not even at the Resurrection itself or the Ascension – that the peoples' fears were relieved. In Pentecost they were renewed with the full love of the Risen Jesus – such that they could go forth and proclaim Good News of salvation. And so we are praying, “Come Holy Spirit. Save us Oh Lord our God; Have mercy on us in these difficult days. Don't let these days of the Easter end without granting us the gifts we need.”

One of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit to the Church is unity. From the account of the Tower of Babel in the Old Testament, people had been divided. All too well do we know how our hurts and fears can divide us come Holy Spirit, and bring us greater unity. Concerning unity, at the Last Supper Jesus prayed, “Father, I pray that they may all be one.” Two thousand years later, sadly Christians remain divided, but Jesus' prayer is still alive and more important than ever, “Father May they all be one.” (Jn 17:21). I pray also that – despite the real and significant, the justified hurts that we experience that – in accord with Jesus' own prayer, we may be one; that we will somehow trust again. This is and must be God's work. It requires the openness of our hearts. It requires docility to the Holy Spirit. But we need to think and pray, “Come Holy Spirit, make us stronger than ever before. “Our simple and powerful prayer is, “Come Holy Spirit Come. Come, Holy Spirit of Love, Come.”

I thank you fathers and brothers for your support and encouragement. There is much work ahead, but I am not afraid. Our God loves us. He still loves us. The Lamb of God came among us to take upon Himself the sins of the world. It is His Spirit who sustains in us lasting hope.

Mary Our Mother, St. Joseph, St. Francis De Sales and all our Salesian saints intercede for us. Join us in our prayer, at Pentecost and always, “Come Holy Spirit.”
